KEEP LEARNING AND STAY CONNECTED

MAKING THE MOST OF REMOTE LEARNING

KEEP LEARNING AND STAY CONNECTED!

Welcome to Issue 3 and this weeks Connected!

We take a look back at photos of 'Fun Friday' from last week. We know there has been lots of work completed during the week but we also wanted to share the fun side of remote learning too.

Your enthusiasm and work ethic with online learning and staying connected to our school community has been amazing.
Well done!

We're really excited about welcoming everyone back to school in the coming weeks!

Just remember while your home, "Keep Learning and Stay Connect"

FEEDBACK

We are pleased to share some student and parent responses from the survey we asked you to complete a few weeks back. We asked students "What you want to see more of" and "How do you keep focused". We also asked Parents "What do you think is working well". Here's what you said!

STUDENTS – WANT TO SEE MORE OF

- Webex meetings - short 10-15 minute check in sessions
 - Communication between students and teachers and their peers.
 - Discussion based activities
- Video explanations
- Forums/chat opportunities
- Deadlines outside of school hours
 - Some students are working different hours, depending on parent work hours, other siblings etc.
- Feedback/acknowledgement of tasks submitted

PARENT – WHAT IS WORKING WELL

- WebEx meetings – regular check-ins for 10-15 minutes of lesson
- Compass has been great at providing information
 - Checking information the day before to help student be prepared for next day
- Sticking to the regular timetable for routine and structure
- Check-ins with teachers – receiving feedback
 - Feedback is helping with motivation to continue

STUDENTS – MOST EFFECTIVE TO STAY ENGAGED

- Information being passed out in a timely manner
 - Via Webex, Email, Compass, Website, Socials etc.
- Having regular breaks and moving around/away from computer
- Video calls help to stay focused, motivated and on task
- Social media to stay in communication with peers to get help on tasks
 - Staying connected with peers has been a huge help
- Receiving feedback on work submitted
